

All questions are compulsory.

1. Answer (any 2) in 100 words each : (2 x 4 = 8 marks)

- a) Identify and define the following writs from the given cases:
- Haryana state police was investigating case of child labour from Jharkhand employed in brick kiln factories spread over the state. Six months after the investigation, Chandigarh High Court ordered the state government to transfer the case to Central Bureau of Investigation.
 - Md. Tabrish, software engineer, was arrested by the Mumbai police on the suspicion of participating in terror camp at Syria. After media reports and calls by several human rights organisations, his case was dropped because of lack of substantial evidence.
- b) According to the 73rd and 74th amendment, women have 33% reservation at panchayat and municipality level. Should this be followed at the State Legislative and Parliament too? Justify.
- c) From the following figure, answer the following questions:

- What is this figure depicting?
- Why did India adopt the current system of election?
- What is the drawback of this system?

2. Answer the following (any 2) in 120 words each: (2 x 6 = 12 marks)

- Explain proportional system of election and its variants.
- How is Fundamental Rights different from ordinary rights and Directive Principles of State Policies?
- Explain in detail Right to Education, 2009.