The regional dances of India, such as the Bhangra of Punjab, the Dandiya of Gujarat, the Bihu of Assam etc., project the cultural heritage of those regions. These folk dances are performed by people to express their exhilaration on every possible event or occasion, such as the arrival of seasons, the birth of a child, weddings, festivals etc. The Government of India, as well as other societies and associations, have therefore made all efforts to promote such art forms, which have become an intrinsic part of India's cultural identity.
